

County Announces Goal Of 251 Fresh Air Children For '51

Invitations Solicited By Committee

Adopting a slogan of "251 for '51," Monroe county's Fresh Air committee has embarked on a drive to have 251 underprivileged New York City tenement district youngsters as guests of Pocono Mountains families this year.

John R. Wilson, general secretary of the YMCA, chairman of the committee, said yesterday that applications for children must be filed not later than June 29.

The children are due to arrive here under auspices of the New York Herald Tribune Fresh Air fund on July 10 for two weeks in the Poconos.

As of yesterday 41 children had been requested by citizens of the county. Many of these came as the result of letters sent to persons who took children a year ago.

The letters offered to bring back to "friendly town hosts" a year ago the same children who were guests for two weeks last summer. In some instances hosts had their children back for last Christmas holiday.

Applications for children may be filed by telephone with Radio Station WVPO, 1102; or at the YMCA, 832, Mr. Wilson said yesterday. Other members of his committee include Elton Hall, vice chairman, Rev. Ernest Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Shoemith, Mrs. John C. Glasen, Mrs. Frank L. Patterson Jr. and Mrs. George T. Robinson.

Once again the New York Herald Tribune Fresh Air fund will be responsible for medical or surgical bills, if any emergencies arise requiring such services.

Mr. Wilson said that persons interested in the Fresh Air fund project may, if they have other commitments during the two weeks starting July 10, make a cash contribution to the fund to send some child on a pre-paid Fresh Air fund camp vacation.

People in the Stroudsburgs and other communities in this region have set a record every year the Fresh Air fund plan has operated here. Their generous response with invitations has been outstanding each year.

Once again the children invited will be transported to Gordon Giffels field in Stroudsburg where they will be served a box lunch and milk during the assignment process.

Youngsters will travel here by a special Lackawanna Railroad Co. train from New York City. Every child sent here is carefully selected by cooperating New York City social service experts and each child is given a thorough physical examination before being assigned, even repeaters.

Girl Tells Of Addiction To Narcotics

New York (AP)—The voice of a teen-ager telling how narcotics led her on a trail to theft and prostitution yesterday dramatized a state hearing into a growing dope traffic among school children.

A tape recorder carried to the silent spectators her vivid story of smoking a marijuana cigarette just for fun at a dance at the age of 13—and of a life blighted within three years.

Then a number of city officials testified:

That the number of teen-agers possessing drugs may be three times as great this year as in 1950, when the number was 10 times as great as in 1946.

That five teen-agers are known to have died of narcotics use in the city so far this year.

That 1,500 is "too low" an estimate of the number of 16 and 17-year-old narcotics users in New York City.

It was all pointed up by the voice of the 16-year-old girl, whose name was not revealed.

Capehart Lauds GOP Women For Sponsoring Contest To Interest Young People In Politics

U. S. Sen. Homer Capehart, of Indiana, in addressing the Republican day banquet group of more than 300 at Shawnee inn last night, hailed the Monroe County Council of Republican Women for their idea of a teen-age contest to interest young people in politics.

Unless young people take an intelligent interest in maintaining our form of government everything is lost, he warned.

"I believe there is an international conspiracy on, and has been for many years, to liquidate the American Republic," he said. "Who built up Communist Russia to the point where it challenged the world?" he asked and pointed to the recognition of Russia by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932 as the first step to strengthening a communistic, atheistic nation.

It was this recognition which sent teams of American experts, streams of American goods to Russia, he said. "And it was a sick

FRESH AIR CHILDREN massed in the grandstand at Gordon Giffels field a year ago, when people of the Stroudsburgs and remainder of the Pocono Mountains region opened their homes to the underprivileged children of New York City. Compromise Sought On Income Tax Harrisburg (AP)—A new taxing proposal was injected yesterday into the Senate Republican fight to knock Gov. John S. Fine's proposed State income tax.

A proposed compromise plan to scale the income levy down from one-half to one-fourth of one per cent was reported under consideration by lawmakers.

The reduced income tax would bring in an estimated $50,000,000 during the next two years. The proposal is the latest of a series of suggestions advanced as a means of avoiding the one-half per cent levy recommended by Fine.

Fine asked the General Assembly to pass the income levy to make up an estimated $119,000,000 deficiency in his $1,220,000,000 State budget for the next two years. The House approved the levy, but 11 GOP senators teamed up to block action on the tax in the Senate.

Senate Republican leaders meanwhile have called a caucus here Friday to go over the entire fiscal picture with the Governor. Out of the meeting is expected to come a solution to the present tax dilemma.

Hedy LaMarr Weds Unknown

Hollywood (AP)—Hedy LaMarr is on honeymoon with a mystery man.

His name is Ted Stauffer. He runs a night club at Acapulco, Mexico. No one in Hollywood knows much more about him, although he was married briefly to another actress, Faith Domergue.

Miss LaMarr and Stauffer went through a surprise ceremony late Monday night at the home of Superior Judge Stanley Mosk. They left soon afterward for Carmel, Calif.

"I am going to devote my life to him," she said of the tall, blond Swiss. If she makes another picture, "and it isn't decided yet"—it will be her last, she said.

Tax-Writing Committee Hikes Levies On Cigarettes, Liquor

Washington (AP)—The House Ways and Means committee gave its final approval yesterday to higher taxes on cigarettes and liquor. It also approved a new 10 per cent levy on professional gambling.

Baby oils, powders and lotions were ordered exempted from the tax on toilet goods.

Subject to final ratification by the House and Senate, the new rates call for the following increases:

Cigarettes, from seven cents a package to eight.

Whisky, gin, brandy, rum and other hard liquor, from $9 a 100-proof gallon to $10.50. This represents an increase of a couple of cents a jigger.

Beer, from $8 a barrel to $9.

Wine, up an average of 12 1/2 per cent.

The proposed new wagering tax would apply to professional gamblers—bookmakers, lottery proprietors, "numbers" or "policy" operators, and men who run pools on sporting events. Committee spokesmen said it would not apply to card games, roulette wheels, office pools and carnival devices. Nor would it hit pari-mutuel betting at race tracks.

The gambling tax would be in effect a 10 per cent tax on the gross receipts of the professional gambler. Suppose the odds on a horse were 10 to 1, for instance, and a "bookie" took a $10 bet. The tax would be 10 per cent, or $1, regardless of whether the horse won or lost. If the horse won, the bookie would pay out $100 on the bet but the tax on the whole transaction would be $1, applying only to the money placed with the bookie.

CBS To Launch Color Telecasts

New York (AP)—Columbia Broadcasting system last night announced it would start commercial color television broadcasting on Monday, June 25.

The inaugural program, first of a commercial nature, will be a one-hour show—4:30 to 5:30 p. m.

Arthur Godfrey and other talent will be on the inaugural program, which will have a number of sponsors, whose names will be announced later.

60 Aliens Taken In Waterfront Raid By Agents

Hoboken, N. J. (AP)—A sudden mass roundup of dock workers yesterday netted 60 men as ship jumpers on the Hoboken waterfront, spotlighted in the U. S. Senate crime committee investigation.

Some 200 U. S. Immigration agents and police swarmed over four Hudson river piers to check credentials of almost 1,000 longshoremen. The raid on the turbulent waterfront area, recent scene of bombings and one slaying, was carried out in an hour with a minimum of confusion.

Edward J. Shaughnessy, district director of the U. S. Immigration service, said the 60 men were taken to the immigration station at Ellis Island in New York Bay for further screening and action on illegal entry into the United States.

Shaughnessy said the men were classed as ship jumpers and stowaways. He said most of the prisoners were Italians and that language barriers slowed questioning.

Opposes Suggestion

Washington (AP)—You Chan Yang, South Korean ambassador, said yesterday his people would be deeply distressed by Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer's recommendations that American troops be withdrawn from Korea.

U. S. Studies Ceiling For Newsprint

Washington (AP)—Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle said yesterday the government is considering limiting the price American newspaper publishers may pay for imported newsprint.

The plan is being studied tentatively by the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) as a means of blocking an imminent $10 a ton rise in the cost of Canadian newsprint.

DiSalle met with 24 publishers late yesterday to discuss the problem. As a result of this meeting, it was reported, he decided not to take any action on a price regulation until another consultation has been held with Canadian government officials.

Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson already has asked Canada's defense minister, C. D. Howe, to prevent the scheduled price rise if possible. Wilson said he intends to talk with Howe again soon, probably in Canada.

A $10 a ton rise would add $50,000,000 a year to the inflationary trend, DiSalle said, possibly resulting in increased circulation costs and advertising costs and the familiar spiral.

Masters Run Oil Fields

Tehran, Iran (AP)—Two masters claimed to be running the sprawling oil fields and giant refinery at Ahadon yesterday.

Iran's board of directors, from a six by 12-foot office with a single desk in the central headquarters of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., began issuing "orders" to the workers. The Iranian flag flew over the building.

But the AIOC, in which the British government owns more than half the stock, appeared to remain in actual command of operations.

The company manager, A. E. C. Drake, deftly sparring with the Iranians seeking to dispossess the British in the billion dollar company, issued a statement saying AIOC "cannot accept that there be any interference in management of the company's affairs in Iran."

He is responsible for management to the AIOC board in London and "the usual chain of authority will be maintained," he said.

Beef Shortage Shows Signs Of Easing

Washington (AP)—Officials kept their fingers crossed and talked tough yesterday as the beef shortage, set off by the live animal price rollback, showed some signs of easing.

At the same time a Senate committee arranged hearings starting tonight to determine whether the shortage is "nothing more than a strike on the part of the meat industry."

And Rep. Celler (D-NY) contributed a suggestion that consumers put on a "strike" of their own "if the cattle and packing interests do not stop their pressure threats to avoid price control."

The toughest of the talk came from Economic Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson who stated flatly that "the rollbacks are firm" on beef, and from Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle who warned slaughterers to stay within ceilings lest they find themselves in violation at the end of June. He talked about prosecutions.

To top off the words from the mobilization high command, Senator McFarland (D-Ariz) reported that President Truman is "going to lay it on the line" in his Thursday night radio-television talk to the nation about the need for control powers in general.

It all added up to a sign of a stiffening stand for emergency powers.

The beef developments here came as reports from the 12 major cattle marketing centers showed a sharp increase in receipts—800,000 head compared with 26,000 a week ago and 37,599 a year ago.

DiSalle told reporters he was "very happy" over the figures but added that he does not feel that they definitely show "a break in the situation." He said improvement will not come overnight.

The beef shortage hearings were announced by Chairman Maybank (D-SC) of the Senate Banking committee. He said they will be held by the Senate-House Committee on Defense Production which he also heads.

Livestock producers, meat packers and other industry representatives will testify, Maybank said.

Celler's comment came in a statement, which suggested use of substitutes for meat in grocery orders and restaurant meals.

"If the cattlemen can strike, so can the consumer," the New York congressman said. "This is the only kind of action the cattle interests will understand."

Capt. Thomas Returns Home From Korea

Capt. Donald S. Thomas, son of Mrs. Laura Thomas, of 553 Main St., Stroudsburg, is home on furlough after recently returning from Korea.

He is accompanied by his wife and son, Donald Jr., 5.

Captain Thomas, who for several weeks was missing in action in Korea after his medium bomber failed to return from a mission, will visit friends in the Stroudsburgs and vicinity until June 21.

After that he will report to Alabama and assignment to Ellington Air Force base, Texas, where he will teach navigation.

Allies Surge Farther North Than Expected

Washington (AP)—Secretary of Defense Marshall, home from a whirlwind trip to the Korean war front, said yesterday American troops and their Allies have pushed farther north than expected a week ago.

Marshall told a new conference that the Eighth Army expected to halt near the base of the enemy's so-called "iron triangle" because that would be as far as they could go without suffering too many casualties.

Marshall called the Allied advance "a very successful operation."

He particularly noted what he described as an amazing speed and concentration of artillery fire and progress in radar-controlled aiming for land, Naval and Air bombardment.

The secretary said the newest methods and techniques have brought far more weapons into action than ever before. They have caused tremendous enemy casualties, he said.

Icing Caused Jet Crashes

Washington (AP)—Icing, not sabotage, caused eight F-84 Thunderjets to crash in Indiana last Friday, the Air Force announced yesterday.

It reported that a preliminary investigation showed that engine inlet screens iced up and became blocked when the aircraft entered "a peculiar set of localized atmospheric conditions" just after taking off from Wright-Patterson field, Dayton, Ohio, where they had been refueled.

Three pilots died in the crashes. It was the largest mass jet disaster in aviation history.

Inquiries by the Air Force, the FBI and aircraft manufacturers uncovered "no indication of sabotage," the Air Force said.

The eight planes were in a flight of 34 Thunderjets proceeding from Austin, Texas, to Selfridge field.

Popping Jugs Injure Five

Camp Atterbury, Ind. (AP)—An explosion on the Camp Atterbury rifle range which injured five Indiana National guardsmen was traced yesterday to three half-gallon apple butter jugs.

Investigators said the jugs, with the lids screwed on, were tossed into a trash fire last Sunday as the guardsmen cleaned up their camp area. The heat exploded the jars, sending rocks and broken glass flying.

The five men were cut and bruised and one suffered a broken arm.

Says U. S. Should Encircle Soviets With Air Bases

Washington (AP)—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer said last night he would accept a truce with the Chinese Communists in Korea if it would bar "chicanery or a return to hostilities."

But Wedemeyer, an old China hand and U.S. commander in China during the last war, said he is "not confident" of Red China's sincerity in negotiating agreements.

Wedemeyer gave his testimony at an extraordinary night session of the Senate inquiry into the firing of his former chief, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, as supreme commander in the Far East.

Earlier in the day, Wedemeyer had told the senators that the United States should throw a ring of air bases around the Russian "heartland" so that American planes could deliver pulverizing blows to the Soviets if war comes.

But he said the United States should never attempt to conquer and occupy Russia in the sense that the Allies occupied the Axis powers after their defeat in World War Two.

He said that would wreck this country economically.

The general denounced the Korean war as a "bottomless pit" for young American fighting men and called for "drawing a line" against Soviet Russia.

He said the time is coming when this country "will just have to draw a line" and tell Russia: "No more. This is it."

He told the senators the line-drawing should be done in the United Nations, backed by naval and "predominantly" air power.

Early in last night's session Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) asked Wedemeyer to elaborate on his assertion Monday that he favors pulling U. S. forces out of Korea.

Smith wanted to know "where we go from there" if the forces were withdrawn. Wedemeyer replied:

"If we withdraw them under duress, it is true that Korea will unquestionably be overrun by these forces of aggression. At least, the devastation in South Korea, the destruction of homes and buildings and utilities and all of these various activities, will stop."

"We probably would just take punitive action, if my plan were followed, against the North Koreans, to preclude—I think we ought to harass them and restrict their activities in North Korea—to preclude consolidation of their position there."

Smith: "You mean by air and sea?"

Wedemeyer: "By air and naval force; yes, sir."

Wedemeyer then asked and got permission to read a prepared statement which he said dealt with "how I visualize this situation in Korea."

In the statement, he said:

"I feel, Gentlemen, that either we should fight in Korea with a view to a decisive and victorious culmination or we should get out. 'I would consider very carefully the military advice from experts available to you in the Pentagon, that we may require some time to prepare for the decisive action that I refer to if we elect to remain in Korea.'"

"However, I would not accept an interminable delay, for we would be expending our resources, both human and material, to a prohibitive degree. This is exactly what the Soviets would have us do."

"Either we should play this strategic game in Korea to win or at the propitious time take our fine team off the field, mobilize fully our spiritual and material resources in conjunction with friendly nations and set about the task of creating conditions that would enable free peoples to pre-empt the rules and select the arenas of conflict in all fields of strategy, including political, economic, psychosocial and military."

Wedemeyer said he thought Chiang Kai-Shek is still "the remaining source or the remaining vehicle" through which the United States may operate in the China area to stop the advance of Communism.

"If I could find another Chinese leader in whom I had confidence and who I could truthfully tell you gentlemen, 'Here is a man with character and ability, there is the man to put your chips on,' I would tell you that," the general testified.

"But I don't know any man at this time."

"I think Chiang Kai-Shek has done a fine job in Formosa."

Tests Successful
Washington (AP)—Senator McMahon (D-Conn) said yesterday the recent atomic weapons tests at Eniwetok atoll in the Pacific were "entirely successful."

U. N. Armored Units Fan Out Three Miles

Tokyo, Wednesday (AP)—Allied tanks, free-wheeling in the Pyongyang valley, today fanned out three miles beyond the front line in North Korea, overrunning piles of abandoned equipment.

Tanks and planes discouraged Reds from trying to salvage something from their debacle in the "iron triangle," more than 20 miles north of Parallel 38.

Kumhwa and Chorwon were the east and west anchors of the blasted triangle.

Below the triangle near Chipo, United Nations units seized a complete Red field hospital.

Today's three-mile prowl of armor was made near Kumhwa. The tanks were unleashed in fairly open country after having been confined for weeks in mountainous terrain.

A near record of more than 1,000 sorties was set Tuesday by Far East Air Force planes, out in force after previously being curtailed by bad weather.

The main body of the U.N. Army caught its breath after winning Chorwon and Kumhwa Monday.

Heaviest Red resistance reported today was southeast of Kumhwa. It was offered north of Hwachon near the west end of the 11-mile-long Hwachon reservoir in central Korea.

Beyond Chorwon and Kumhwa, only soggy rice paddies separated the Allies from Pyongyang.

Red resistance all across the front was classed as light to moderate throughout Tuesday.

Even that encountered north of Hwachon was a delaying rear guard action.

Soldiers called it a "bouncing battle." The Allies attacked. They were halted. Planes and artillery went to work. The Reds withdrew to another ridge. And the whole thing was repeated.

At the east end of Hwachon reservoir, Allied troops gained a mile and a half north of Yanggu. A large group of Reds was forced to retreat.

Eastward between Yanggu and Inje, two Red counterattacks were repulsed. The Reds then faded back.

68 Convicted Bookies Indicted On Tax Charge

Los Angeles (AP)—Sixty-eight agents and ex-employees of the notorious Guarantee Finance Co. were indicted yesterday by a Federal grand jury on income tax evasion charges.

Walter S. Binn, chief assistant U.S. attorney said the secret indictments did not name any bettors.

U.S. Marshall James J. Boyle immediately started service of warrants for the arrest of the 68, whose names were not disclosed.

Both the California Crime Commission and the Kefauver Senate Crime committee have tabbed the Guarantee Co. as a $7,000,000 a year bookmaking front.

Protect Shrubbery

When having painting done outside it is well to have the painters use a canvas over the shrubbery or boxwood that may be defaced by paint spots. It takes but a minute to supply this protection and may save some unsightly marks.

Testimony Heard In Estate Case

An estate settlement wrangle went into its second day in Monroe county court yesterday as additional testimony was presented before President Judge Fred W. Davis and Associate Judges Homer A. Shupp and Theodore S. Metzgar.

The hearing was on a petition for specific performance filed by Arthur J. Frailey and wife, Reeders, against the estate of the late Ellen Frailey.

After the completion of testimony yesterday the second Monday of September was tentatively set as the date for argument on the case.

Council involved includes Atty. Frank S. Weiss, who represents the estate and the executor, Charles Frailey, of East Stroudsburg; Atty. Arlington W. Williams, who is counsel for Mrs. Thelma Werkheiser, daughter of the deceased; Atty. Russell L. Mervine, who prepared a contract for Arthur J. Frailey and the late Mrs. Frailey in 1945; and Atty. James C. Scanlon, who has been representing Arthur Frailey and wife in the current action.

Principal issue in the court action evolves around an agreement into which the late Mrs. Frailey and her son, Arthur J., entered in May 1945. Under terms of that agreement, the son, Arthur, rented a portion of the Frailey home owned by Mrs. Frailey and was given an option to buy the property at a price of $2,000 on her death.

On the stand yesterday, Arthur Frailey stated that the rent, which he said his mother set, was $7 per month.

Paul Frailey, another son of the deceased, concurred that the figures set by his mother were $2,000 for the property after her death and $7 monthly rental. He also disclosed that he at first was opposed to the arrangement, but added that he later agreed with Charles Frailey and Mrs. Werkheiser, his brother and sister.

Others who offered testimony yesterday were Harry Storm, brother of the deceased; Mrs. Arthur Frailey, Leon Frailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frailey and Attorney Mervine.

Attorney Mervine was called as a witness to clarify points concerning the May, 1945 contract between the elderly Mrs. Frailey and her son, Arthur.

State Motor Federation Reelects A. J. Sordoni As President

Convention Closes At Pocono Manor

Pocono Manor — Former State Sen. Andrew J. Sordoni, of Wilkes-Barre, was unanimously reelected president of the Pennsylvania Motor federation yesterday morning at the close of the 45th annual meeting of the group, which represents 57 AAA automobile clubs throughout the State, at Pocono Manor inn.

Sordoni, who is also State secretary of commerce, was first elected to the presidency of the PMF on Feb. 2, 1945, following the death of Judge Howard W. Hughes.

Walter E. Burns, of Harrisburg, was reelected as treasurer, while the following vice-presidents were elected:

Will S. Fox, Pine Grove; John S. Giles, Reading; Frank E. Ballantyne, Philadelphia; Robert J. Firman, Erie; William E. Morgan, Pittsburgh; Harry C. Stitt, York, and William E. Bright, Scranton. Nominated for three-year terms as AAA directors from the Pennsylvania Motor federation were Ballantyne, Stitt and Morgan.

Principal speaker at the closing session was Russell E. Singer, of Washington, D. C., executive vice president of the American Automobile association, who told delegates that just as our country had to create world leadership, so did the AAA have to create world leadership in the field of travel.

Speaking of the efforts to perfect a world-wide organization for travel, Mr. Singer declared: "We in the AAA are part of a great world-wide movement."

Predicting that the matter of security is going to assume more and more of an influence in our lives, Mr. Singer outlined the differences in the meaning of security to different peoples and in the United States we find collective security.

He said it through collective security we have the United Nations, the Atlantic Pact, is the reason why Eisenhower is in Europe today, and the reason why we are in Korea today.

"Security is the basis of the permanent program we have undertaken in this country," the AAA official stated. "We seek no conquests, but are building up for security purposes."

Continuing on the theme of security, Mr. Singer said "collective security for the motorist started when your club was organized," claiming that club membership gives the motorist security and protection.

Delegates adopted a resolution reaffirming a recommendation adopted at the Secretaries' and Managers' conference held recently in Harrisburg calling for the erection of signs informing the traveling public of the speed limits for passenger cars and for the various classifications of trucks at the principal highway entrances to the Commonwealth.

Another resolution recommended that the State Department of Revenue assist the motor clubs of Pennsylvania in publicizing the right-of-way provisions of the vehicle code, particularly on the rules affecting vehicles making left-hand turns at intersections.

The attendance at the two-day convention was reported the largest of any yet held. Delegates expressed their appreciation of meeting in the famed Pocono Mountains vacation area and the excellence of the program which had been planned for the entertainment of members and guests.

Contractors Fly To Area

Mount Pocono — Construction firm officials making speedy, on the spot inspections of the Tobyhanna Military reservation prior to placing bids on contracts to be let by the government, have been keeping landing strips at the Pocono airport busy this week.

D. W. Winkelman, head of the Winkelman Construction Co., of Syracuse, N. Y., flew in yesterday in a twin engine cabin plane. He and his party went immediately to the reservation at Tobyhanna where they viewed the land prior to reaching a decision regarding a bid on excavation and general grading.

George W. Brewster, owner of the Brewster Construction Co. of New Jersey, took off from the Mount Pocono field on Monday, after he and his party had made a thorough inspection relative to the possibility of bidding on the Tobyhanna job.

A group of officials from the Savin Construction Co., of Hartford, Conn., also flew into the Mount Pocono 'port on Monday, leaving later after visiting the nearby Signal Corps site.

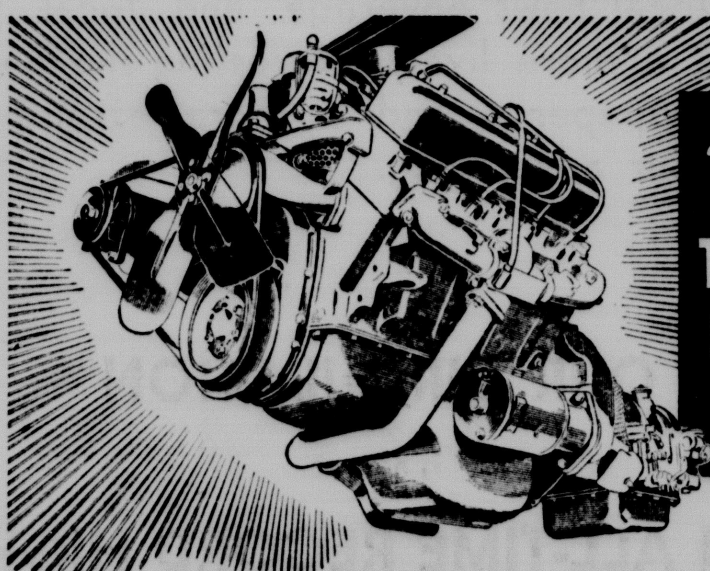

Jack Davis, operator-manager of the airport, said the field is being maintained in tip-top shape to accommodate the contractors, government officials and others making air visits to the Tobyhanna reservation.

In addition, grass about the field is mowed regularly and kept trimmed.

Wall Temperature Affects Comfort

By using insulating board in home construction, home owners can lower the temperature of interior wall surfaces in summer, thus increasing comfort, because the cooler the walls, the lower the temperature in the room. In winter this phenomenon is reversed. The walls are warmer and consequently help to increase the sensation of comfort.

Repairs To YMCA Building Hold Attention Of Board Of Directors At Meeting

Repairs to the Monroe County YMCA building, including removal of the front porch, highlighted the discussions at the meeting of the directors last night at the Wyckoff tearoom. T. J. Kitson, president, was in charge.

A bid was received from Carl Hamill for $468 for painting the exterior of the office in the lobby, the walls and ceiling of the lobby, the secretary's office, also patching.

A previous bid had been received from R. M. Frantz to do the job for $325. There was a discussion of the other repairs and changes, some of which are due to the fire of last spring. Plans call for stone steps with iron rails, also steps to the side of the main building to replace the present front porch. There are also other repairs necessary including improvement to the highway around the structure.

The board eventually directed the house committee, Edward C. Hess, chairman, and the executive committee to make up a complete list to be submitted at a special meeting of the board to be called in the near future.

It was decided to secure $20,000 additional fire insurance on the building to bring it up to the 80 percent value, or a total of $76,560.

Merle C. Ostrom reported on the World Service project, in which the local organization, makes a commitment. It was decided to en-

Club Installs New Slate Of Officers

The local Lions club, meeting last night at the Penn-Stroud hotel, installed officers for the coming year, honored Dr. James R. Gavin, for 20 years a faithful worker in the club, and extended a welcome to the community to Rev. Walter Johnston, the new pastor of the Stroudsburg Methodist church.

First Vice President-elect Harry Phillips was not present and was installed in office in absentia. The new board, presented and obligated by Dr. Gavin, is as follows:

President, T. Manning Curtis; second vice, William Hinton; third Myron Zeleny; lion tamer, Frank MacNamara; tail twister, James Somers; directors one year, Floyd Butz, Tom DeVivo; two years, Rudy Manheim, Seymour Katz; secretary, Harold Snyder and treasurer, Henry Reader.

The new officers will take office at the first meeting in July. Dr. Gavin explained the duties of each incumbent and each, in turn, pledged his best efforts to the interests of the club.

The retiring president, William P. Deering, was presented with a past-president's button. The installing officers congratulated him on having driven the club workers hard and driven himself even harder, and as a result, having given the club its best year in more than twenty years.

Ed Boushelle presented Mr. Gavin with a beautifully engraved and colored testimonial in the mission style. This was in recognition of his membership of almost a quarter century in the club and his indefatigable work on the organization's behalf.

Rev. Mr. Johnston was guest of Orren Stiff and spoke briefly, telling of his pleasure in returning to the Poconos, where he and his wife came as bride and bridegroom a good many years ago. He paid a tribute to Lionism and its value in community stabilization and building.

Grange Fights Weights Bill

Harrisburg, (AP) — The Pennsylvania State Grange yesterday voiced opposition to a bill increasing the maximum truck weights. J. K. Mahood, secretary of the Grange, said the measure "would wreck our bridges, destroy our highways and prevent out-of-state truckers from meeting Pennsylvania standards."

The measure, introduced by Sens. John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland) and Guy B. Robinson (R-Susquehanna) would increase the maximum truck weight allowed from 45,000 to 60,000 pounds. It would also increase the penalties for overloading and set up a new inspection system for weighing the trucks.

Mahood said "half the bridges in the State would be endangered by this measure. Present weight limits have caused damage to our roads and increasing the maximum weight would do more damage."

Worth The Expense

MINISTER'S WIFE TELLS HOW HADACOL WAS SO HELPFUL

HADACOL Helps Folks With Weak, Run-Down Conditions, Poor Appetite, When Caused by Deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

A weak, run-down condition can make life mighty drab for folks who feel that way. Imagine not having a good appetite. Loss of weight and energy oftentimes accompany this condition. When Mrs. Ardene Longaker, a minister's wife, who lives at Rt. 5, Meadowbrook Rd., North Kansas City, Mo., began feeling that way she began taking HADACOL for she had heard how it was helping people with weak, run-down conditions and poor appetite, when due to a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Now, Mrs. Longaker says she feels good and is recommending HADACOL to her friends.

Here is what she says: "I am a minister's wife and am 39 years old. I was run-down, lost weight, was listless, and had no appetite at all. I'm on my fifth bottle now and am amazed at the results. I want to eat all the time now. Most of all, I'm glad to say, I've gained several pounds. HADACOL is so economical. I believe almost anyone can afford it, and I do recommend it to my friends."

HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the REAL CAUSE of weak, run-down conditions, stomach distress, nervousness, poor appetite and nagging aches and pains when due to the lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in the system.

AND LISTEN TO THIS! Continued use of this great HADACOL not only gives continuous complete relief but helps keep such painful distress from returning when caused by such deficiencies. Now that's the kind of product you have been waiting for. That's the kind you should buy and start taking at once.

And HADACOL'S wonderful Vitamins and Minerals come in special pleasant liquid form so they are quickly absorbed and assimilated in the blood, ready to go to work at once.

HADACOL IS SO EFFECTIVE Because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your

THESE folks are enjoying something that's being pioneered by Buick.

It's freedom from the blinding glare of bright summer sunlight.

It's freedom from hot laps—caused by the sun's rays beating down through the broad expanse of windshield.

These freedoms trace to a new feature you may have noticed in '51 Buicks—a new kind of glass with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, in every glass area of the car, front, side and back.

Buick engineers tell us that this "Buick first" reduces glare 18% over conventional glass—cuts sun heat as much as 45%—and Buick engineers are very conservative fellows.

This glare-and-heat-reducing Easy-eye glass is factory-installed at moderate extra charge. It gives you a built-in transparent "sun visor" right in the windshield—and it also dulls the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night.

As we've said, this is something Buick owners were the first to enjoy. It takes

As we've also said—rather modestly—"Smart buy's Buick."

Mr. Malone has the oldest quarter-hour daily program in the United States. Once called Ted Malone's Scrapbook, it is now known as his Quarter Hour. It is a commentary and human interest program heard at 1:15 p. m. daily.

Immediately following coronation ceremony, Mr. Malone will leave here to start another trip around the world to gather television movies for his new program which will be known as "Around the World in 30 Minutes."

He has a rich background in travel including an extensive period as overseas war correspondent. He made one trip around the world to gather material for a radio program.

Malone is best known for his books of poetry and prose.

Walter Fossa, director of the festival, announced Mr. Malone had accepted the coronation assignment.

Mr. Fossa said the Laurel princess contest will close at noon Friday. Entrants will be received up to that hour. Judging will be completed during the day and announced Saturday morning. The judges are John C. Valence, Lawrence Levy, Leslie Carlton, Jack Shinn and Mr. Fossa.

Another contestant in the waitress division was announced yesterday. She is Constance Beers, who works at Biggs Restaurant. A resident of 4 S. Kistler St., East Stroudsburg, Miss Beers is five feet nine and a half inches tall. She has light brown hair and gray eyes.

Emphasis is now on sale of tickets to the colorful Laurel ball, coronation ceremony and fashion show. Tommy Tucker's band of the year will play for dancing after the fashion show, which the American fashion world's greatest designers will present at Shawnee Inn's Green Terrace.

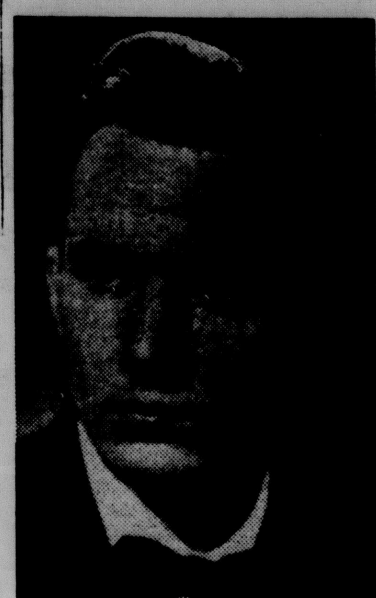

The coronation ceremony will take place at a specially arranged Laurel throne which LaBar's Rhododendron nursery will set up at Shawnee Inn.

Soil Service Merges With PMA Program

A consolidation of the Monroe County Production and Marketing administration agricultural conservation program with the soil and water programs of the U. S. Department of Agriculture was reported here yesterday.

David H. Griffith, chairman of the three-member county PMA board, in announcing the jointure, declared that the primary change pertains to the work of Atlee F. Rebert, U. S. Soil service consultant in this district.

"Henceforth, Mr. Rebert, previously occupied chiefly by soil district projects, will be in charge of all the technical work related to the Production and Marketing farm program here," Griffith said.

He went on to explain that Rebert will make the customary check on field practices which he, Vice-Chairman Robert Warner, Pocono Lake; and Chris Sautter, Kunkletown RD member, have made in the past.

The soil service consultant will also inspect PMA practices in Pike county, working in close cooperation with the Pike county PMA office in the Milford court house.

Under PMA's program here, assistance is provided in the form of materials, services and financial aid to farmers carrying out approved conservation practices. Approximately 450 farms in the county are now enrolled.

Under the new consolidation move, the soil conservation service, represented by Rebert, will aid with technical assistance in developing and preparing specifications for locally adapted practices.

County Agent A. E. Ifft and Austin T. Blakeslee Jr., the Farmer's Home administration representative in Monroe county, are also a part of this conservation and defense production team, Griffith asserted.

Commenting further, he said: "This consolidation will serve to formalize a working relationship that has been developing through the years. It will strengthen this relationship and make it possible to more directly apply available services to the needs of the county, State and nation."

Waste Space Can Be Used For Cabinets

The architectural eyesore, such as that jog in an upstairs bedroom wall made by the chimney, or an unused door, or the unwanted double doorway between dining and living room, can be remodeled into useful as well as attractive cabinets.

Fill in the jog in the wall with shelves so that they smooth out the long sweep of the wall. Enclose the lower shelves with doors to form a storage cabinet.

The double opening between dining and living room can be closed up and sheets of wallboard and shelves installed on the dining room side. Or, if you only want to partially close this opening, install shelves without closing the upper space with wallboard. Doors for the lower shelves will give storage cabinets on both the dining and the living room sides.

The unused door is given a slightly different treatment. Fill the frame entirely with shelves. Remove the upper panel of the door, but not the lower. Back the shelves with a board. This makes a shadow box effect of the upper shelves, framed by the door. The bottom panel of the door conceals the lower shelves. To get at the lower shelves, simply open the door.

Decorating the shelves is a challenge to the imagination. In a room with walls striped in dusty rose and white, an attractive plan for the shelves is to paint them white, edged in powder blue. Beige walls will be handsome with shelves of terra cotta or tile red.

These shelves are effective background for the display of collections of old Sandwich, Steigell and Wheeling pressed glassware. In the closed cabinets can be stored glassware less frequently used.

Base Lessens Cracked Walls

Applying plaster to walls and ceilings over metal lath or perforated rock lath instead of wood lath creates a surface that has greater resistance and less danger of cracking.

One of the advantages of plastered interiors is that any unevenness in wall or ceiling construction can be concealed as the plaster is applied. Another is that, if the stud and joint spaces are filled with mineral wool insulation, fire will be held back for an hour or more. Plaster can be redecorated repeatedly and, unless permitted to get wet, it will usually last the life of the house. Plaster cracks are usually caused by settling of the house, shrinkage of wood used in construction, improper mixing of plaster.

Plaster is made of sand, water and lime, or gypsum, mixed to a plastic state and applied in three successive coats. The extremely thin finish coat may have a smooth or a sand texture. The smooth coat can be papered or tinted with any kind of paint; sand finish does not work well with paper or enamel paint.

Pin-Up Lamps Hung Too High

One of the most common faults in using pin-up lamps is that home-makers usually hang them too high on the wall. A good rule to follow, suggests Mary E. Wheeler, home lighting specialist, is to use these measurements when placing pin-ups:

Above davenport or chairs, place lamps so that bottom of shade is about 48 inches from the floor or just high enough so that the light source is not visible from a standing position.

When using pin-ups over beds, hang them so that the lower edge of the shade is 28 to 30 inches from the top of the mattress.

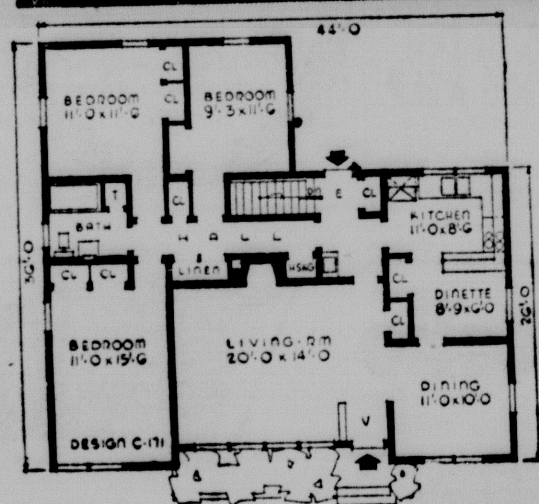

Use at least a 100-watt bulb in the diffusing bowls of all wall lamps used for reading.

Change Of Ownership

Change of ownership of a home, such as transfer of title from husband to wife or vice versa, usually will void the insurance on the house. It is suggested that the insurance company be consulted in advance. In making any transfer of title, it is important that the change of ownership be recorded.

Makes Rooms Lighter

Painting walls in light tints makes rooms light by reflecting more of the light that falls upon them.

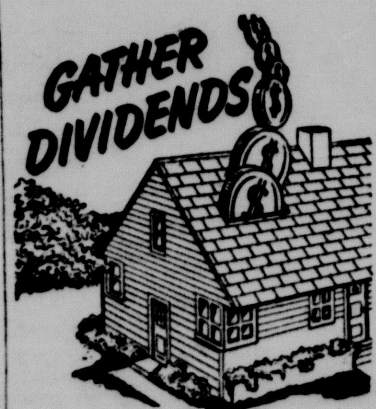

THE COBB has closet space for every purpose, well distributed throughout. This three bedroom design also has convenient circulation. A separate dining room is provided in front, and in addition, the snack bar in the kitchen forms a breakfast nook. Wardrobe type closets are used in bedrooms and added storage space is found in the coat closets for both entrances, towel cabinet in the bathroom, two closets and linen cabinet in the hall and a convenient kitchen closet. A lavatory is placed in the rear entry. Exterior finish is siding and asphalt shingles. There is a full basement with laundry and heating plant. Overall dimensions are 44 feet by 38 feet. Floor area is 1,402 square feet. The cubage is 27,339 cubic feet. For further information about THE COBB, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Little Girl's Room Should Contain Long Storage Unit

A little girl's room should contain a long storage unit. Even wall-length is not too long. It can provide both closed and open space for clothes, linens, books and toys. To encourage neatness, drawers and shelves should be low enough for the youngster to reach. Some of her dolls and other prized possessions can be displayed on the counter top. In addition to books, open shelves are ideal for toys that are played with more frequently.

A small desk can be built into the unit and so can a simple dollhouse. The dollhouse need not be elaborate just a series of shelves with vertical partitions to divide it into rooms. Furnish it with miniature furniture from the 10-cent store, and a little girl will be amused indefinitely. Since she will probably sit on the floor to play with her dollhouse, an asphalt tile floor is just right for her room. This is warm, resilient and colorful, and easy to keep clean. Both the storage unit and the floor can be done in colors to match or contrast with the rest of the room.

Hardwood veneers for fine furniture and decorative panels are made from trees imported from all parts of the world.

Back-Yard Fireplace Easily Built

A backyard fireplace to add enjoyment to summer living is easy and inexpensive to build. Fire brick laid in clay mortar is best. Other materials needed to build a 36-inch cubical fireplace are 10 inches of 1/2-inch pipe 36-inches long, one length of 8-inch x 8-inch flue lining tile, a metal grill two feet square and a 32-inch length of heavy angle iron.

Make the foundation 36 inches square, extend it below the frost line and slope the top slightly toward the front for drainage. On this erect rear and side walls 8 inches thick. This leaves an open-front 20-inch x 28-inch firebox.

Build the three walls up 14 inches, then place the pipe lengths across the top course of brick three inches apart to serve as a grate. Space below provides draft and an ash-pit. Mount the pipe ends solidly in thick mortar, then continue the walls up another 22 inches, leaving a space slightly less than 8 inches x 8 inches at the rear center of the firebox for the flue. Set in the grill in mortar for the cooking surface which will be at the comfortable height of 36 inches above ground.

Lay one more course of brick on the three walls and place the angle iron across the rear of the firebox where it joins the chimney opening. The iron is to support the front edge of the flue, the other three sides resting on the brickwork. Lay up brick around the tile to within 2 inches of its top and complete the fireplace with a sloping mortar joint from the top of the tile to the outer edges of the chimney bricks.

To economize, most builders declare. The lightweight doors suitable for interiors will, in some climates, warp and crack if used for exteriors and require replacement. If this occurs, the combined expenditures will exceed what the original cost of a good door would have been.

Trees produce a greater proportion of food in the tropics than anywhere else in the world.

The doorway to the home, occupying as it does the focal-point of the building, should carry the dignity that is demanded of it. Beauty in doorways runs the gamut of design all the way from simplicity to antique hand-carved portals. Many of the fine old doors of other centuries are now available in reproduction. These add greatly to homes and definite architectural design and do not cost much more than just a plain door that would not be in character with the home.

Fish Agency Strives For Strong Curbs

Harrisburg, (AP)—The State Fish commission moved yesterday to bolster its control over fishing in Pennsylvania.

C. A. French, executive director of the commission, disclosed that an extensive revision of the agency's field-administrative control is under way.

French declined details of the new plan before it is completed late this month, but said the change-over is along the lines of the administrative setup used by the State Game commission.

French said the plan generally calls for division of the State into sections with a district supervisor responsible for each section. The district supervisor would direct activities of local fish wardens in each division.

Under the present setup, the Fish commission has no field supervisors. Instead its 50 fish wardens have complete local jurisdiction and are guided directly from the central office here.

French said the new plan will greatly increase the administrative efficiency of the commission on the local level.

The reorganization job is now partially completed, French said. Under the new plan, the State will be divided into some six or more geographical divisions with each division embracing a specific number of counties.

French said complete details of the reorganization together with counties within the various divisions will be released when the reorganization program is completed.

French said W. W. Britton, chief enforcement officer for the commission, is now in the field carrying out the reorganization plan.

Wareham, Fund Raiser, Dies

Westport, N. Y., (AP)—Harry P. Wareham, 68, who coined the name "Community Chest" and directed or helped manage campaigns which raised more than $250,000,000, died Monday at his summer home.

He had suffered several heart attacks since 1948.

Wareham organized and directed 131 fund campaigns for various philanthropic organizations.

He organized the first "community chest" drive in Rochester, N. Y., in 1919, predicting then that the phrase would become a household word in the United States.

Since then, 1,250 communities have organized such campaigns on Wareham's pattern.

Rev. Shellenberger, Retiring Pastor, Honored At Farewell

Tannersville—Approximately 65 persons from the Tannersville and Appenzell Reformed churches attended a farewell party last night for Rev. J. M. Shellenberger.

After serving as the Reformed pastor here for over 42 years, he will retire this month.

The farewell party, held in the form of a covered dish supper, was given in the local POS of A hall. Arrangements were in charge of the Men's Brotherhood and Women's Guild of the local church.

After his retirement Rev. Shellenberger plans to spend three months with each of his four children. They are Dr. John H. Shellenberger, formerly of Arlington Heights and now of South Bend, Ind.; Mrs. Howard Kresge, Chipfield Drive; Dr. Mark Shellenberger, Mischiwaka, Ind.; Miss Lois Shellenberger, Lansdale, Pa.

Following the farewell party last night, members of the congregation met at the parsonage for the monthly workers' meeting.

Draft Not Expected To Dip Into 19-Year Pool Until Fall

Harrisburg, (AP)—The draft will not reach Pennsylvania youths of 19 until late next fall under present induction plans.

Col. Henry M. Gross, State draft director, said yesterday there is still a substantial number of older age groups scheduled for call before the 19-year group is reached.

The present reservoir of older groups won't be depleted for some time yet, Gross said, unless world conditions worsen.

So far, the draft head reported, only a very few of the State's 175 local draft boards have dipped in the 19-year age group.

"The vast majority won't dip that low for quite a long time under present draft calls," Gross stated.

He said some 36,825 men have been drafted into the Army from Pennsylvania since the draft was resumed last September. Most of these men were from the 20-25 age groups.

Draft calls since September reached a peak of 5821 in March, with the quotas dwindling to a low of 856 for June.

The rate of acceptance of Keystone selectees has been averaging about 70 per cent, Gross said. He termed this average very high in comparison to the acceptance rate in many other states.

There are only two good harbors—Keeling in the north and Kaohiung in the south—along the lengthy coast of the island of Formosa.

Opening Of Depot Bids Postponed

The Army Engineers district office in Philadelphia announced yesterday that opening of bids on the first phase of the construction of the $30,000,000 Tobyhanna Signal Corps depot has been postponed until Friday, June 19.

Bids were to have been opened yesterday morning but some minor changes in the building specifications caused the delay to permit contractors to revise their estimates.

The Tobyhanna depot, when completed, will be one of the nation's largest Signal Corps installations.

Contracts for the installation will be let in three separate phases at regular intervals concluding with the super-structure or building erection job early this fall.

Original estimates indicated the buildings and depot will be completely ready for occupancy early in 1953. It will utilize an estimated 5,000 civilian employees with a minimum corps of Army officers who will direct the affairs of the depot.

Romansky Pays Costs In Case, Leaves Jail

Edward Romansky, 34, of 25 N. Second St., Stroudsburg, was released from Monroe county jail yesterday on payment of $11.25 in court and warrant costs.

Romansky, who had been picked up on a bench warrant and held for court, agreed to authorize his employer to deduct $20 per week from his wages for support payments to be made to Miss Elizabeth G. Martin, county probation officer, when he was taken before President Judge Fred W. Davis on Monday.

He had been cited for failure to comply with a previous court order, but the court agreed to release him after the defendant authorized the $20 per week deduction to maintain dependents and wipe out an accumulated arrearage.

This was contingent upon payment of the costs, however, so Romansky was returned to jail Monday and released yesterday when the costs were paid.

Tomorrow Is Circus Day; King Brothers Show Here

Tomorrow is the day! Stars and oddities, specialty performers and elephants—all will mingle on the circus ground early tomorrow morning as the huge King Brothers Circus, with literally scores of internationally known stars and features, arrives in East Stroudsburg for afternoon and night performances at the old Ball park on Day St. for the benefit of the Lions club.

And, as an extra special feature, a parade of elephants will be presented downtown at noon as a reminder of circus day and the scores of thrills in store for youngsters of all ages.

The show will come here from Wilkes-Barre where it is exhibiting today. It is a concentration of all that is outstanding in the land of sawdust and spangles—with three herds of performing elephants, many strange beasts from far off jungles including the tallest giraffe in captivity, 30 handsome horses and ponies, and other attractions.

New features from foreign lands are in abundance this season. Among them are Truzzi, the juggling genius; the Sabatini troupe of high trapeze stars; Lela Vis-

Maral, breathtaking high-perch performers; Vicente Barragan, cloud-swing headliner, and several others of equal calibre from among the nearly 200 men and women arenic performers.

For the convenience of circus patrons, a downtown ticket office will be in operation tomorrow at the Rea and Derick drug store at 578 Main St., where tickets for both performances will be on sale.

Harold (Whiz Kid) Carlton Home Before Going Overseas

One of the three local members of the U. S. Marine Corps' "Whiz Kids" fighter squadron is back in Stroudsburg for a 30-day leave. He is Sgt. Harold S. Carlton, 112 Broad St., Stroudsburg. He returned Saturday from California with his wife, Phyllis, and two children, Linda, 4, and Ronnie, 19 months.

The Carltons drove east from Los Angeles, Calif., where they stayed with Mrs. Carlton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Waldron.

They traveled from one scenic point to another on their cross-country trip. They visited Grand Canyon, the petrified forest, Boulder dam and Las Vegas, Nev. They covered 8,000 miles on the return trip.

The two other members of the Marine squadron are 1st Lt. Robert Lawson and Sgt. Carl Gordon.

Carlton, who was recently promoted from corporal to sergeant, is slated for an overseas draft after the termination of his leave. He expects to be sent as an operations clerk replacement in the Marine Air Corps and will probably be stationed in Japan.

The "Whiz Kids" squadron is now stationed at El Toro, Calif. Lieutenant Lawson's wife, Frances, and daughter, Barbara, are with him in California.

Can you beat this measure of car value?

Of standard-built cars used as taxicabs, there are far more Plymouths than any other make...in fact, there are more Plymouths than all other makes combined!

Those who own taxicabs are experts on car value. They have to be! Their very living depends on their judgment in selecting the right car.

This selection is not made on "hunch" or "sentiment" or loyalty to any make.

In the cold light of fact, taxicab owners test all makes of cars for everything—roominess, riding comfort, handling ease, braking action, maintenance cost, day-and-night dependability—everything!

As the result of these continuous tests, the overwhelming majority of taxicab owners say: "The car for our money is Plymouth!"

Isn't this pretty convincing proof that Plymouth is the car for your money, too? But you don't have to take somebody else's word for it. Your Plymouth dealer will gladly arrange a demonstration now. Then you can put the Plymouth through your own tests and see for yourself.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Doug Schoonover will launch his baseball school for boys between the ages of 13 and 15 inclusive tomorrow, when a large turnout is expected at Gordon Giffels field. Following the period of schooling this group will form a league that will operate for the balance of the season. The circuit is being formed to give those too old for Little League and too young for American Legion baseball a chance to play their favorite game. This summer, under the watchful eye of one of the best teachers in the area.

Schoonover plans to uniform all the players, although plenty of equipment is still needed to make the circuit a success. Anyone wishing to donate any diamond equipment or money to purchase same may contact Schoonover at the Stroudsburg Playground, where he is again serving as director this summer. This writer was hopeful of seeing a circuit of this type started next year, not realizing that the project had enough interest to start immediately. Schoonover also was the number one figure behind Little League baseball in this area a year ago.

Speaking of money brings to mind the fact that dugouts can be made available for the Stroudsburg Little League in the very near future if some angels will donate that needed folding stuff. Dugouts would be the answer to the prayers of all managers in the circuit, as it would aid greatly in disciplining the youngsters now playing in the circuit. Discipline is the factor that has most worried the various pilots to date and dugouts would allow the managers to keep the players in one spot, rather than allowing them to stray to various parts of the field and surrounding areas.

Jim Jaskolka, a member of the Navy and a former football and basketball star at Stroudsburg High school, appeared on the social page yesterday as he became engaged to Mary Lou Gargone, who served as a cheerleader at the same school before graduation. Jim's brother Jack, a football star at Stroudsburg High also, is currently a member of the Marine Corps, with plenty of action in Korea to his credit. Dick Lee, another former football star on W. Main St. may become a Penn-State student in the fall. Lee captained the Stroudsburg grid machine in his senior year.

Ken Brown, former basketball and baseball star at East Stroudsburg High, dropped this column a letter the other day from Shepard Field, Texas. Ken, who also attended East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, is playing a little basketball and softball when not too busy going to aircraft engine mechanics school. Ken is rooting for Pocono A.C. via The Daily Record and is also keeping tabs on Harry Schaeffer, former pitcher with the Poconos and a former ESSTC student, in Texas.

Schaeffer, a southpaw, is one of the major figures in Beaumont's rise from last to fourth place in the Texas league standings. Schaeffer is currently sporting a record of nine wins and four defeats, to rank with the best as far as games won are concerned. Harry is also among the best in innings pitched and complete games. Schaeffer has appeared in 13 games, worked 106 innings, fanned 42 batters for an average of .692. Harry's latest win was a 6-0 verdict over San Antonio.

Danny O'Connell, who got his start in organized baseball with Bloomington, of the North Atlantic league, in 1946, recently hit a home run to help Fort Myers defeat Langley Field. The win was the twenty-first in 26 outings for Fort Myers this year. O'Connell was the number one shortstop for the Pittsburgh Pirates before being called into the service. Stan Pawloski, third baseman with the Poconos in 1949 and now holding down a similar position with Cedar Rapids, in the class "B" Three I league, is out of action for a week with a pulled thigh muscle.

Frank Radler, pilot of the Stroudsburg Poconos for the past three years, has his DeLand club back in first place in the Florida State league. However, the latest information brings to the front the fact that the lead is by only one percentage point. Evansville, with Harry Warner, Reddick, holding down first base, has slipped to fifth place in the six club Three I league. Roy Hughes, former National league infielder with the Cubs and Phillies is Jack Rothenshauser's manager at Lakeland, in the class "B" Florida International league.

Al Gardella, former Bangor and Peckskill manager in the North Atlantic league, has been replaced as pilot of Three Rivers, class "C" Provincial league, by Del Bissonette, who served a portion of one season as manager of the Boston Braves. Gardella has found it impossible to bring his Three Rivers club out of the cellar and was replaced. The action took place on June 6. Latest reports show that Three Rivers had lost 21 of its first 32 games.

Brownies Surprise Yankees, 5-1

New York, (AP)—Duane Pillette got even with the Yankees for trading him away from a pennant winner last year by pitching the St. Louis Browns to a 5-1 victory yesterday. The 28-year-old right-hander held the champs to four singles.

Oddly enough, the victim of Pillette's first complete game of the year was Fred Sanford, a Yankee $100,000 purchase from the Browns. Sanford gave up three of the runs in the first six innings. The other two were walked home by wild Tommy Byrne in the stormy seventh.

Good Form
Pillette, son of a former Detroit and Cincinnati pitcher, Herman Pillette, blew down the first nine Yankees to face him. Mickey Mantle's leadoff single in the fourth was the first hit. Johnny Mize singled in the fifth and Gerry Coleman and Phil Rizzuto did the same in the one-run sixth.

The loss was a chilling blow to the Yanks hopes of catching front-running Chicago during their 13-game home stand. For the Browns, who had beaten New York only once in eight previous meetings.

Dale Long's double scoring Bob Young in the first was the only extra base hit of the day.

White Sox Blank Senators, 3-0

Washington, (AP)—The White Sox boosted their American league lead over the New York Yankees to three and one-half games last night by beating Washington 3-0, behind the four-hit pitching of Lou Kretlow.

Kretlow, a big right-hander who defeated Washington on four hits last week for his first victory since 1949, walked five and struck out five as he pitched Chicago to its fifteenth victory in 17 road games. The defeat was the eighteenth for the Senators in their last 21 games.

Big Frame
Bob Dillinger opened a two-run third inning for the White Sox with a single. Third baseman Eddie Yost, later ejected by Umpire Cal Hubbard for protesting a strike while batting, bobbled Nelson Fox's bunt and both runners were safe. The bases were loaded when Orestes Minoza was hit on the back by a pitched ball. Chicago ... 002 010 000-3 8 0

Roseto Takes Over Possession Of First Place

Muhr Stops Pocono A.C. On One Hit

Roseto A.A. vaulted into undisputed possession of first place in the Blue Mountain league last night on the wings of Bob Muhr's one hitter, as the charges of Manager Hal Nerino took the measure of Pocono A.C., 5-2, and knocked the home team out of a tie for the number one spot in the standings.

The visiting Roseto club touched Chef Lucki for an unearned run in the second frame and was never headed thereafter. Mike Renaldo opened with a single and rushed to second as Ed Wodzicki drilled a one-ply wallop to center, and went the distance as Don Sweda allowed the rolling ball to go through his legs for a two base error.

Roseto came back to score again in the third on a walk to Dick Pritchard and singles by Hal Nerino and Wodzicki. The visiting team's third run was manufactured in the fourth frame, when Anthony "Sunshine" Franchio reached base on a fielder's choice, went to second as Muhr drew a walk and scored on Al Nerino's single to left.

Two Tallies
The Nerinomen put the contest on ice with two counters in the fifth. Hal Nerino singled to deep short, on a ball that Jim Werkheiser made a brilliant play on, but was unable to throw. Renaldo then tripled to right center, scoring Nerino and the Roseto first sacker crossed the plate a moment later himself on a fly to left by Wodzicki.

Pocono A.C. opened its scoring in the third when Tom Bonser drew a walk and raced all the way home when Renaldo failed to cover first or a pickoff throw from Muhr. The same club finished its scoring in the fifth frame, when Bob Schick walked, went to second on a passed ball, to third on a single by Dan Eppley to center and crossed the plate on a fly to right by Bonser.

Eppley's blow was the only hit of the contest for Pocono A.C., as Muhr pitched hitless ball for four full frames.

Tigers Blast Red Sox, 7-3

Boston, (AP)—Detroit's Tigers batted around and scored five runs in the first inning last night, then held their own the rest of the way in defeating the Boston Red Sox 7-3. A turnout of 28,775 paid fans witnessed slight left hander Ted Gray pitch the Tigers to victory, ending a Boston home winning streak of ten games.

Taylor Blasted
The Sox never could catch up as Gray limited them to nine fairly well distributed hits, one of them Clyde Volmer's second homer of the season, whacked over the left field barrier in the eighth.

Starter Harry Taylor was unable to survive the first inning as he suffered the fourth of his five defeats to the Detroiters.

IAM, Worthington Mower Pick Up Favorable Softball Nods

IAM and Worthington Mower scored victories in the Monroe County Softball league last night, as the circuit moved toward the midway point of the second round. IAM took the measure of Line Material, 12-1, on the East Stroudsburg Playground, while Worthington Mower downed Kulp's Foundry, 2-0, at East Stroudsburg Junior High.

The IAM club scored eight times in the second inning and four in the fifth to completely dominate the contest with Line Material, as the latter pushed across its one and only tally in the bottom of the seventh and final round.

Tough Contest
Worthington Mower had its hands full with Kulp's Foundry, before pushing across single runs in the fifth and sixth innings respectively. Marcus "Mark" Decker blanked the Kulp contingent on five hits, while Bob Heid hurled three hit bats against Worthington Mower, only to lose.

Tonight's schedule will send Line Material against Tucker's Chevrolet in the Junior High field, while Patterson-Kelley and the Eagles clash at the Playground. Both games are listed for 6:15.

Cleveland Takes Measure Of A's

Philadelphia, (AP)—The Cleveland Indians' Bob Feller needed help from Lou Brissie and Mike Garcia last night to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-6. For his ninth win of the year, The A's scored once in the ninth and had two men on base when Garcia got Gus Zernial to loft one to the outfield for the final out.

Feller has lost only one. He had finished eight of the nine games in which he was the starter before tonight and held an 8-5 edge entering the final inning.

Deliver
Manager Jim Dykes of the A's called on two pitch-hitters and both delivered. Bill Hitchcock singled through the center and Allie Clark banged one in about the same sector. When Eddie Joost slammed a deep drive to center that Sam Chapman caught up with after a long run, Manager Al Lopez decided it was time for a change. Hitchcock reached third after Chapman made the catch.

Brissie came in and got Ferris Fain on a fly to Chapman. Hitchcock scored after the catch. Brissie then walked Elmer Valo and Garcia came on. Chapman gathered in Zernial's final-out fly to complete all three outs of the inning.

Cramer's Lumber Scores In Extra Frame To Down PAH

Cramer's Lumber Co. opened the East Stroudsburg Little League baseball season last night with a 10-9 victory over Peters-Arnold-Howell, but it took an extra inning to turn the trick at the East Stroudsburg Playground.

The winning run crossed the plate as a result of Ralph Lyons' homer in the bottom of the seventh stanza. It was the third hit for Lyons in four trips to the plate during the game and the ball sailed into deep center field.

Another Homer
Dale Metzgar, losing hurler for PAH, also homered in the center field area earlier in the game.

Tonight's schedule will find the East Stroudsburg Methodists and East Stroudsburg National Bank clashing at the Playground, at 6:30.

Louis Favored To Triumph Over Savold

By Jack Hand

New York, (AP)—Old Joe Louis is a three to one favorite to send 35-year-old Lee Savold back to back tending tonight in a 15-round Polo Grounds bout designed to produce a September challenger for heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles.

By no stretch of the imagination can this struggle of over-age bull elephants be said to have captured the public's imagination. Still, it could be a bitter brawl as long as it lasts.

Louis predicts he'll knock out Savold in six rounds. Lee says it will take him only five to stop Joe. Everybody concerned hopes one of them is right. Prospects of a 15-round huffing and puffing match are enough to kill theater television in its first try. The pick here is Louis in five.

No Television

This bout, scheduled for 10 p. m. (EDT), will not be beamed into your home by television or radio. It will be carried on a closed circuit into theaters in Baltimore, Chicago, Cleveland, Washington and Albany. If you live in those cities and can dig up the cash, you can see the show. Otherwise you hop up to the Polo grounds or read about it in your newspaper tomorrow morning.

With the no-TV, no-radio lure, the International Boxing club hopes to excite a last minute rush on the box office. The price scale runs from $20 to $250 with some 20,000 "cheap" seats going on sale this morning. The IBC hopes for 15,000 people and $100,000. Best guess probably is about 9,000 and $65,000.

Everybody knows all about Louis, now 37. The Bomber hasn't been bombing in recent years. He has scored only one knockdown in five comebacks since he was whipped by Charles last September. In fact, the public has seen so much of a rusty Louis on TV that much of his appeal has been lost. It will take a quick knockout to restore the old glamor enough to make a second Charles bout attractive.

The winner is slated to fight Charles with the tentative date September 12 at Detroit. Louis says he can hardly wait.

Sigs With Redskins

Washington, (AP)—"Chuck" Drzenovich, 225-pound fullback for Penn State, yesterday signed to play his second season of pro football with the Washington Redskins.

Drzenovich was one of the team's most likely looking rookies last season. He lives in West Brownsville, Pa.

Pirates Ink Infielder

Pittsburgh, (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League yesterday signed Robert Bolam of Springdale, Pa., third baseman of Clarion State Teachers College who had a college batting average of .616.

Capacity Crowd Expected To Watch Chitwood's Daredevils In Action On Blakeslee Track

Blakeslee—All indications point to an overflowing crowd turning out here tomorrow night to greet Jole Chitwood, famous Indianapolis Speedway star, who will make his first appearance in this area in person with his World's Champion Auto Daredevils at the Pocono Sunrise Speedway. Additional seats have been installed to accommodate the record throng anticipated with a portable flood-light system lighting the track.

The show is scheduled to get underway promptly at 8:30 p. m., with an extra crew of ticket sellers ready to open the box office at 6:30 p. m., two hours before show time.

The Chitwood motor mania, recognized as the greatest troupe of automotive thrill experts in the history of the thrill show profession, will race smash and crash new 1951 Ford stock sedans in a spectacular two-hour program of hair raising race-track thrills climaxed by the amazing "aerial rocket car" leap, a world's record jump of a speeding automobile, ramp-to-ramp.

Sharing the spotlight with the death-defying "rocket car" leap, a stunt that has taken the lives of 11 daredevils in recent years, including the late "Lucky" Teter, is the hazardous "Dive Bomber" crash, the world's championship roll-over contest, and the "Leap of Death."

In the "rocket car" leap, Christy "Snooks" Wentzel, of Reading, will send a stock sedan catapulting from a launching platform to a height of 15 feet in the air, and attempt to land his car on a receiving rampway in full view of the spectators. Wentzel's leap is a miraculous 86 foot flight through space. While his car is in mid-air, a second auto with Billy Carter, of Pittsburgh, behind the wheel, careens wildly on two wheels between the elevated rampways.

In the roll-over contest, a trio of daredevils are selected by Chitwood, and they in turn attempt to completely demolish three automobiles, rolling them over and over until the cars refuse to budge an inch. The stuntman rolling his car the highest number of times on the track is declared the winner. Points are awarded all season long to the stuntman entered in this unique contest, and a $1,500 cash prize is awarded the winner at the end of the season.

In the "Dive Bomber" crash Billy Allen, of Memphis, Tenn., defies death at every turn of the wheel when he plunges a speeding stock sedan from a ten foot high elevation into two parked automobiles.

Tomorrow night's show will be the first of its kind at the Blakeslee track and will also be the initial time that lights have been used at the local speedway since its construction last year.

Stock cars have dominated the track since opening day and tonight's program will be an added incentive to the people of the area to see more thrilling action with cars than ever before witnessed in these parts.

Phils Rally To Nip Cubs

Chicago, (AP)—The Cubs gave Frank Hiller a four-run lead yesterday but the Phillies scored two runs in the fourth inning and then knocked the Chicago pitcher out in the fifth to win, 6 to 5, before 9,289 fans.

Rain held up the game 32 minutes in the second inning and threatened to wash it out when the Cubs blew in the fifth.

Dee Fondy's third homer of the season in the first inning and three more runs which disposed of Russ Meyer in the third set up a rosy picture for the Cubs. Then Frank Hiller was going along nicely until he lost control in the fifth and the Phils assumed a lead they never relinquished.

Seventh Place

The loss dropped the Cubs into seventh place.

The Cubs scored their last run off Mito Candini in the fourth, but from this point they made only one hit off Jim Konstanty.

Manager Frank Frisch employed four pinch hitters and ran in three more pitchers—Paul Minner, Cal McLish and Dutch Leonard—but to no avail.

In all, the Cubs made 11 hits, but their bats weren't much good to them after the fourth. Only two runners reached first, Andy Patko on an error and Phil Cavarretta on the only hit off Konstanty.

The Phils made only six hits, but five of them came in the two innings in which they scored all their runs.

Bangor To Hold Night Baseball Games

Bangor—First in a series of night baseball games in Bangor has been set for Tuesday, June 26 when Ed Bolden's Philadelphia Stars and the Elite Giants of Nashville, Tenn., clash under the arc lights at Bangor Memorial park.

Announcement of the Negro team attraction was made here yesterday by the light committee of the Bangor A. A.

The appearance of the two Negro American League teams will launch a summer series of barnstorming baseball events now under consideration by the A. A. committee.

Plans

Already plans have been made to bring the Indianapolis Clowns here for a game with the Bangor Stars on Thursday, July 5. The Stars, it will be remembered, appeared here last summer in an exhibition game against the Bangor Slayers of the North Atlantic league.

The Elite Giants previously appeared in Bangor when that club operated out of Baltimore, Md., while the July 5 visit of the Clowns will mark one of the rare occasions when the Indianapolis Negro aggregation has departed from metropolitan ball parks.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 4 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 4, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Donkey Tilt Listed For Roseto Park

Roseto — Roseto A. A. currently in the midst of a grueling pennant fight in the Blue Mountain league, faces its toughest task of the season on Friday night, at 8 p. m., at Roseto Park. The charges of Manager Hal Nerino will stack up against the Eighth Street Garage, in a donkey baseball game.

Proceeds from the contest will go toward the maintenance of the Roseto Park field.

Good Team

The Eighth Street Garage annually wins the championship of the Industrial Softball league and will form tough opposition under the portable lighting system.

Al Capobianco, master magician with the enlarged oval, has been assigned to hurl for the garage-men.

Anthony "Sunshine" Franchino, bronx-busting high scorer of the 1950 contest, will lead the Roseto A. A. contingent in quest of its second consecutive donkey baseball victory.

Enters Pro Ranks

Philadelphia (AP) — Vincent J. Filiben, captain and shortstop of the Drexel Tech baseball team this past season, said yesterday he had signed a contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates and will report to the Burlington, N. C., class "B" Carolina league team on Sunday.

Filiben was sought by several major league teams.

People's Coal Talties Six Runs In Final Inning To Triumph Over Penn-Stroud, 12-8

People's Coal Co. scored six times in the fifth and final inning last night to account for its first victory in the Stroudsburg Little League, with a 12-8 verdict over the Penn-Stroud Hotel club. People's Coal had gone down to four setbacks before registering victory number one.

The Penn-Stroud club held a 3-1 advantage at the end of the first inning and was out in front at the end of the second round.

Scoring
People's Coal led 3-1 at the end of the first inning and 6-5 at the completion of the second round, only to have the Penn-Stroud club go out in front with three tallies in the third.

This score held until the fifth, when People's Coal came roaring from behind to win with a big six-run explosion in what proved to be the final inning.

The contest was halted after five innings because of darkness. Paul Frailey pitched and batted People's Coal Co. to a victory coming up with three hits, including a triple.

Tatamy Nips Portland In Pitching Battle

Tatamy — The home team made every hit count here last night as Tatamy scored a 3-1 victory over the Portland Apollos, although held to a pair of singles and a solid double by Bill Hann.

Portland, behind the tight pitching of Randall Ott, held the uphill throughout the Blue Mountain league twilight affair, until an outfield error and a couple of base knocks enabled Tatamy to score three times in the sixth frame and wrap up the ball game.

Lone Tally
The Apollos used a walk, two infield singles and a squeeze play to account for its lone run against Ray Smith in the second frame.

Tatamy's win was its second in the last three outings, while Portland suffered its fifth loss in eight contests this season.

Portland will be in action again tonight, when the Apollos play host to East Bangor, at 6:15.

Darn! Another Cleaning Bill!

No wonder this young lady's so annoyed, what with cleaning costs where they are. To have one dress cleaned today costs almost as much as two would have cost not so long ago.

Don't blame the cleaner. Blame the dollar! In terms of what it will buy, the dollar is worth less today than ever before.

We are feeling the pinch, too.

The cost of supplies and equipment used in the telephone business is going up and up, just like the cost of supplies and equipment for other businesses.

In spite of this, we have been able to provide good, low-cost telephone service that continues to grow in value.

Even if it should cost more, your telephone service, in comparison with other things, would still be a big, big bargain.
